

DON'T FORGET TO CHECK THE BULLETIN BOARD FOR VARIOUS SIGN-UP SHEETS AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOU TO SERVE.

You may not want to join a committee or serve as an elected officer, but there are still many opportunities for service to Good Shepherd and the community.

1. Donate flowers to beautify the chancel area. Just sign your name on the flower chart, indicate any special request for the bulletin and Sally Hyman will do the rest. If you would like a special arrangement contact Sally before your week to donate. The florist will bill you direct for your arrangement. You may take it home with you after the late service. (It is ok to sign the chart if someone else has signed. We can always find room for another arrangement.)
2. Serve Refreshments. It is a good way to meet and greet members and visitors by serving a light refreshment after the late service. It does not have to be an elaborate feast, nor does it have to be "homemade". Some nice finger food and a drink is all that is necessary and it gets folks to mingle and talk. Maybe you think you can't tackle the job yourself, then ask another member if they would like to help. The sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board. If you have any questions talk to Elizabeth Berreth.
3. You're a recent member and you think "I would like to help with....." (fill in the blank) but I don't know what to do. You will find a list of all committee chair on another page. If you see something that is of interest to you, ask someone to direct you to the chairperson and they will be happy to get you involved.
4. We have a great music department. But it could be even greater with more voices. If you like to sing, talk to Jenine Bristol about joining the choir. I know they need more voices.
5. There are numerous ways to help the community simply by donating needed items. You will find a list of organizations we support plus the items needed by each group on another page.
6. And lastly, don't forget to remember our elderly, ailing, shut-ins, and hospitalized with a call, a card, a prayer, or a visit.

With Easter being so early this year, several major festival Sundays fall in May. If you notice, there will be several changes of the liturgical color, banners, and decorations, starting with:
May 1—Ascension Day—Color is White.
May 4 is the Seventh Sunday of Easter—Color is White
May 11 is Pentecost Sunday—Color is Red. It is also Mother's Day
May 18 is Trinity Sunday-Color is White
May 25 is the Eleventh Sunday of Easter and the color is green.
The 31st is the Visitation of Mary to Elizabeth-the color is White.
We will see you at church.

FROM THE LANDSCAPE COMMITTEE

Fellow gardeners spring is here! Soon the flowers and shrubs will be blooming, the trees will leaf out and the weeds will start multiplying! Keeping our church grounds beautiful requires many willing, helping hands. This does not require a huge investment of your time, because the tasks are divided up among all the volunteers. We will need people to weed, water, help with some rock and brick work, and do some mulching-something for everyone. There will be a sign-up sheet posted in the narthex. Consider signing up as a family, as an individual or with a buddy! If you have questions, please call Deb Beckwith at 879-6761.

Thank you and God bless you!

DID YOU KNOW?

April 13 was Good Shepherd Sunday and a special banner was hung. This banner was made almost 50 years ago by Emil Blasé, late husband of Dorothy Blasé. It did survive the fire with a little smoke damage.

It was a pleasure to be able to hang this special banner for our celebration of Good Shepherd Sunday.

ASCENSION DAY—MAY 1

The members of Immanuel Lutheran will join us for a Salad and Sandwich Supper at 6:00 PM on May, 1, 2008. Ascension Festive Service will be start at 7:00 PM.

If you read this before May 1, please check the bulletin board for a sign up sheet to bring either a sandwich or a salad.

LWML has been furnishing the new Parlor. It is just about complete. We will be adding a few more pieces such as tables and lamps. It will be a comfortable room for small meetings, wedding attendants and other events. Take a look to see what has been done. Thanks to our ladies who have been furniture shopping.

The May LWML meeting will be held May 11th at 9:30 AM. If the elevator is not installed yet, we will meet in an area upstairs.

The Supper Club will be winding down in April with the last Supper Club until September. From all reports that I have heard, a good time has been had by all. We will be having a joint Supper Club Saturday, June 7th at 6:00 PM. This will be held in the Fellowship Hall at Good Shepherd. Hot Dogs with all the fixings will be provided. We are asking $5.00 per couple to defray costs. At this time we will discuss any changes or additions we should make.

There will be a sign-up sheet in the Narthex in the middle of May. Watch for more information.

MOSES MOUNTAINEERS

Howdy All;

Well, we certainly had a great hike & picnic cookout April 19th.. The rain held off until we got to the shelter and finished roasting the 'dogs. Many thanks to everyone who contributed to the festivities. Everyone's contribution was certainly enjoyed and appreciated. I think we had over 20 folks on this one.

Our next outing will be May 17th. Be on the lookout for more details on this one. We'll also plan one for June 21st.

Also, as something a bit different, I would like to know who would have interest in doing an occasional bicycle outing – such as some of the gravel/dirt roads in DuPont Forest, or Paris Mountain, or similar. We could be Ezekiel's Wheels . If anyone has an interest in this, let me know. If we have a few folks interested, I'll set-up a few outings interspersed throughout the year. Maybe you have a friend or colleague that likes to bike. This could be another opportunity to introduce new folks into the main group. Let me know what ya'll think of this.....

Again, super thanks to everyone for a great Hike'n & Hotdogs outing !!

See ya'll out there.....

Jim D

LCGS Floggers (Golfers)

We had a good turn out for our first LCGS Floggers Outing at the Furman University Golf Course. Mark your calendar for Sunday, May 18 for an afternoon tee time at another local course. Stay tuned for more details.

Regards, Marque Kilpatrick

Do you listen?

I mean REALLY Listen?

We have a terrific music department, but are you really listening? Both Jim and Jenine spend a lot of time selecting the right music to go with the service of the day. Our choir, for as small as it is, sounds as good as some of the professional choirs you hear in other churches. But, are you listening?

The second Sunday in April Jim played a Prelude that was magnificent. (of course they all played their seats and probably half of them were listening to the music. The prelude is part of a time to be in your seat and meditation and preparing to time to Listen! Likewise, the in with the service and pre-the offering. Listen to what heritage of the Lutheran worship service, in the hymns them, etc. Lets give our music next Sunday LISTEN TO THEIR played a Prelude that was exceptional). He had that half the congregation were in them were listening to the the worship service. It is to be spend some quiet time for hear the word of God. It is a choir anthem is chosen to fit sented during the receiving of they are singing. Music is the Church. It adds so much to a sung, music played, choir an-department a chance and MUSIC.

By the way, the choir can always use voices. See Jenine about joining.

{God still speaks to those who take time to listen.}

I have no voice for singing, I cannot make a speech;
I have no gift for music, I know I cannot teach.
I am no good at leading, I cannot "organize,"
And anything that I would write would never win a prize.
It seems my only talent is neither big nor rare—
Just to listen and encourage, and to fill a vacant chair.

"Has your husband a good ear for music?"

"I'm afraid not. He seems to think that everything he hears in church is a lullaby."

LIST "B"

Taken from the minutes of the Church Council Meeting of Sunday, April 13, 2008.

Present: Pastor Saxe, Joan Winkelman, Marjorie Winkelman, Deb Beckwith, Sally Hyman, Bob Mead, Frank Meyer, Gretchen Taylor, Barbara Kilpatrick, Geri Frericks, and Monika Santiago, and guests Larry Hyman, and Jerry Frericks. (TOTAL 10 voting members.)

# 1—Read list A.

Did you find your name?

#2-Now, Read List B.

Did you find your name there also?

If yes, good, that is as it should be; and 10 of you made the cut.,

If no, why not? That left 20 no shows (there were some who were excused).

Being an elected or appointed Servant Leader of Good Shepherd includes attending all council and voter's meetings.

Voters Meetings are held each year on the second Sunday of February, September, and November and on the first Sunday of May.

Council meets during months not scheduled for a Voters Meeting, or as determined by the President and Pastor—Constitution 4.0 The Church Council.

The Constitution also states: The Church Council shall consist of all elected officers, appointed officials, and the Past President. The pastor is a non-voting member.

Council also accepts reports from all board Chairpersons, committees and organizations; and acts in behalf of the voters between voters meetings in accordance with the directions set by the voters meeting.

This is not a position where 30% of the council acts in behalf of the voters. This should be 95% or 100%. The next Voter's Meeting is the first Sunday in May, May 4 and the next council meeting will be the second Sunday in June, or June 8. We will see y'all there! Illness or out of the country are accepted excuses.

If you can't find your copy of the constitution, go to the Web at lcgs.org and click on Constitution. Then when you get to the end of the Constitution you will find a link to a job description for all elected and appointed Servant Leaders. It might be a good idea to review the description for your particular job.

Any member of the congregation may attend a Council Meeting as a non-voting member.

The Lutheran Church of The Good Shepherd

Bob Mead called the meeting to order at 12:15 pm. Pastor Saxe opened with prayer.

Present: Pastor Saxe, Joan Winkelman, Marjorie Winkelman, Deb Beckwith, Larry Hyman, Sally Hyman, Bob Mead, Frank Meyer, Gretchen Taylor, Barbara Kilpatrick, Jerry Frericks, Geri Frericks, and Monika Santiago.

Altar Guild: No report was submitted.

LWML: Geri Frericks reported that nine members attended a meeting this morning. She asked all women to participate in the LWML Western Zone Rally to be held April 19th at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Tryon, NC.

Financial Secretary: No report was submitted.

Treasurer: Gretchen Taylor submitted a report. All bills are current. A report is on file.

Pastor: No report was submitted.

Trustees: Barbara Kilpatrick reported that there are some issues with the sink in the sacristy and the kitchen sink. The trustees are working to resolve those. In addition, Cisson Construction has asked for a key to the building so they can do preliminary electrical work before the elevator installation. Thomas Gilstrap, the supervisor, will pick it up on Monday, April 14 from the office, with instructions to return it when work is completed.

Elders: No report was submitted.

New Business: Barbara Kilpatrick informed the Council that the trustees have asked for and received a proposal from Trane for a service contract, which would provide maintenance for the HVAC system throughout the year. This would also allow to be invoiced for necessary service, rather than having an individual pay for it and be reimbursed. A proposal is on file.

Sally Hyman made a motion:

To ask the Trustees to contact Trane to explain the details of the contract.

Deb Beckwith 2nd the motion. All present approved.

Bob Mead adjourned the meeting at 1:15pm. Pastor closed with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Monika Santiago

FROM LFS CAROLINAS: Faith to Succeed

"In all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us."- Romans 8:37

Ryan, who is diagnosed as mildly mentally retarded, came to an LFS Carolinas adult group home on his birthday in November 2007. Extremely talkative and standing over six feet tall, he quickly made an impression on the staff. They recognized that he had the ability to pursue many things, but lacked motivation to do much outside of the house.

Rather than pushing Ryan to explore specific activities, the staff at the group home let him make his own choices and offered him support and encouragement to pursue his own goals.

In a short amount of time, Ryan began proving that the faith the staff placed in him was well deserved. After seeing a housemate participate in karate, he decided to take on the sport. Ryan has been taking karate since January and has progressed to a yellow belt and has even competed. He says karate teaches him "respect and discipline," two traits that have also come in handy in accomplishing another goal- securing employment.

Ryan got a job working at a local grocery store and uses the money he earns to pay for his own karate lessons. He attends church, and, after watching the presidential primary speeches, decided he wanted to have a say in the upcoming election and plans to vote in November. After graduating from high school, Ryan has moved on to aspirations of going to college. He is currently in the application process and wants to study criminal justice.

And Ryan has a lot more on his to do list. He has expressed an interest in learning to cook and also wants to get his driver's permit

The staff could not be more thrilled with the way Ryan has tackled the challenges before him. They believe he is on the right track to gaining more and more independence and inevitably achieve all the goals he has set for himself.

Your partnership helps courageous individuals like Ryan develop and reach goals they might never have imagined for themselves.

Thank you for supporting the vulnerable members in your community!

Success is never final and failure never fatal. It's courage that counts. (George Tilton)

The third Sunday of each month is to designated as "Above and Beyond" Sunday where we have an opportunity to support outside ministries above and beyond our regular contributions. Those familiar blue envelopes will be found in your bulletin on these Sundays for your response. You may take the envelope home and prayerfully consider your response and return it any Sunday. The outside ministries we support are Crossway's Mission program, Greenwood Lutheran Mission, and United Ministries in Greenville.

A SINGLE ROSE

Why do we wait til a person is gone before we tell them of their worth?
Why not tell them now
they are the finest person on earth?

Why do we wait till the person is gone to send them flowers galore.
When a single rose would have meant so much if we had taken it to their door?

Why do we wait till they cannot hear the good things we might say?
Why put it off, why not tell them now and share in their joy today?

Of course we're busy, that's our excuse
but why, oh why, do we wait,
To tell a person our love for them until it becomes too late?
