DON'T FORGET TO VOTE!

"The wonderful thing about saints is that they were human. They lost their tempers, scolded God, were egotistical or testy or impatient in their turns. Made mistakes and regretted them. Still they went on doggedly blundering toward Heaven." (Phyllis McGinley)

We will honor our departed saints Sunday November 2.

*"Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God
forever and ever! Amen."*

Revelation 7:12, NRSV

MOSES MOUNTAINEERS

No official outings planned in December for obvious reasons...(although if weather, time, and a weekend permit, we may just throw something together for those able)

See Jim's note regarding Ezekiel's Wheels on another page.

DATES TO PUT ON YOUR CALENDAR: NOVEMBER 2008

NOVEMBER 2: The Church traditionally observes All Saints Day on the Sunday closest to November 1, as the day we remember those who have gone to their eternal home. On All Saints' Day, we offer thanks to God for the faith of the saints and praise Him for His faithfulness to His saints. God has promised He will be faithful to us as He has been faithful to the saints before us. All Saint's Day is a Festive Day and the liturgical color is White, the color of Joy and victory. During the service a candle will be lighted by the families of members of the congregation who died during the past year.

November 16 is Lutheran Women's Missionary League Sunday (LWML)

when the women of the church are honored for the ministry they offer. All women of Good Shepherd are members of LWML and are invited to attend our meetings on the 3rd Sunday of each month except during the summer and December. Our annual Christmas Dinner will be December 9. (See related article elsewhere.)

On November 23, we will celebrate Christ the King Sunday. This is the last Sunday of the church year and the last Sunday after Pentecost. It celebrates the sovereignty or kingship of Christ. Christ the King Sunday is a Festival Sunday and the liturgical color is White for Joy and victory.

Thanksgiving Day is November 27 this year. This is a civil holiday set aside to give thanks for our bounty. Join us on November 26 at 7:00 pm at Good Shepherd as we join with members of the Lutheran Church of Our Saviour to give thanks to God for his bounty.

November 30 is the First Sunday in Advent: The start of a new year in the church when we start to focus on the coming of infant Jesus, in the past as a babe, in the present through word and sacraments, and in the future at the end of time. The liturgical color is Blue the color of Hope.

SNEAK PREVIEW of December Services:

Make note of these dates and times:

Evening Advent Services Wednesdays Dec 3, 10, & 17 starting at 7:00 PM with Soup Suppers starting at 6:00 PM.

Sunday Services Dec 7, 14, 21, & 28, regular times 8:30 and 10:30 AM

Christmas Eve Services December 24, at 7:00 and 11:00 PM

Christmas Morning Service December 25, at 10:30 AM

New Year's Eve Service December 31, at 7:00 PM

AMONG OUR FLOCK

PLACE OF HOPE NEEDS: Travel Toothpaste, Toothbrushes, spray deodorant, disposable razors and petroleum jelly.

EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE has need of canned meats, corn flakes, and boxed macaroni and cheese.

LEARNING CENTER needs reading glasses and good-condition eyeglasses.

Please place items in the basket designated for United Ministries.

Volunteer Orientation: Thursday, November 6th from 9:30 to 11:30 AM

PERRY CORRECTIONAL CENTER: Always need shampoo, toothpaste, soap, deodorant, toothbrushes.

Please, no shave cream or aerosol cans. Place your items in the big blue tub either in the Narthex or workroom.

Our Eyes Were Opened has a new Website: www:oureyeswereopened.org.

Share a short time with Good Shepherd's little cherubs. Please contact Catherine Graef, graefc@hotmail.com, to indicate the possibility of your participation as a sub in the nursery. Thank you.

"Thank you to all who participated in the flu clinic on the 19th of Oct. And a thank you to all those who had already gotten their shot. Interim Services did 35 injections this year. You made the clinic a success!

Even though October is designated as breast cancer month we need to continue in self examination and mammograms for those over 50 yrs. in particular. There are agencies to help with getting a mammogram if needed. Please ask if you need assistance.

Lib Duffau, Health Care Facilitator

The Good Shepherd Supper Club has gotten started. From the reports I am hearing is that everybody is having a good time. We will meet in November and then not again until January. If you did not sign up and are interested in joining us, please contact me. A great way to meet other members of Good Shepherd.

Sally Hyman

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS DINNER
TUESDAY-DECEMBER 9
STARTING AT 6:30 PM.

LADIES: Every year LWML hosts a Christmas Dinner for all ladies in the congregation. This year the dinner will be held Tuesday evening, December 9 in the Fellowship Hall of Good Shepherd starting at 6:30 pm. All women of Good Shepherd are invited to enjoy some good food, fellowship, and fun. We ask that you bring an appetizer, vegetable dish, salad, or dessert to share. LWML will furnish the meat, bread, and beverages. This is a good time to meet those ladies you see at services but never have time to really sit and talk to each other. So, check your calendar and sign up so we know how many places to set. If you wish to, bring a small gift (under $10.00) to exchange.

GENTLEMEN: You are not left out! Larry Hyman will host a dinner for the men of Good Shepherd. You are to bring a covered dish to share. Meat, bread, and beverages will be provided. There is also a sign up sheet on the bulletin board so Larry knows how many will be attending. Also see Larry for directions to his place.

FALL CHURCH CLEAN-UP

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15 FROM 9:00 am -1:00 pm. PLEASE join us as we prepare the church (inside) and the grounds (outside) for the holy seasons of Advent and Christmas! There are many opportunities to serve. Many hands make light work so please plan to pitch in for at least an hour or two, if not for the entire time. Believe it or not, we ALWAYS have a great time!

We would also appreciate it if you would bring the following:

OUTSIDE WORKERS: Weeding tools, Rakes, Leaf Blowers, Tarps for Leaves, Shears for Trimming Shrubs, Work Gloves,

INSIDE WORKERS: Cleaning Supplies: Murphy's Oil Soap, Disinfecting Cleaner (Lysol, Mr. Clean) Some of these in spray form would be great; Paper Towels, Sponges, Rags, Windex, Buckets, etc.

There will be a sign-up sheet in the narthex. Questions, call Kyle Martin or Deb Beckwith.

DECEMBER/JANUARY COMBINED QUILL DEADLINE WILL BE SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 16 2008, MIDNIGHT. PLEASE HAVE YOUR ARTCLES TO ME VIA E-MAIL, TELEPHONE, IN PERSON, OR IN THE QUILL MAIL BOX.

Howdy all

Since we don't do a formal Moses Mountaineer hike during December, I thought a short, easy bike ride at Sadler's Creek State Park's mountain bike trail would be a nice change of pace. This is a super-fun ride.. especially for first-timers, or those just getting back into the swing of things (or else still working off T'Giving turkey). So by all means, please feel welcomed to come and ride as far as you can. This is an "in & out" trail so no one will be left to themselves.

We've hiked this path before so you know that it's flat with enough little berms to make it interesting and it ends at the lake. Total distance will be about 7-8 miles. Any bike with wider tires (i.e. not narrow road tires) will do fine for this trail since there're no hills to climb. A great trail for anyone that can ride a bike. So, weather permitting, we'll put this one on the calendar.

We'll meet at the WOODRUFF ROAD Atlanta Bread Co and depart at 8:30am.

Remember – helmets are mandatory. So be thinking about this one for later in the season.

See ya'll out there !!

Jim D

Hallelujah!! The elevator is completed! This is something we have needed in our facility for a long time. Members and friends of the congregation were excluded from fellowship activities because of the stairs or had to drive around to the lower doors of the fellowship hall, so this is truly a blessing for our church family.

However, with this blessing comes the responsibility of using the elevator wisely. The elevator is a fascinating thing and is bound to attract the attention of our young ones. Parents are asked to keep their children off of the elevator and to reserve the use of it for those truly in need of it. This will keep the children safe and will help keep our electric bills from sky-rocketing. Also, it was brought to the attention of the council that if the emergency telephone button (the bottom-most button with the phone icon by it) is pressed, there are hundreds of dollars in charges from the elevator company that would have to be paid. This is not in the church budget, and we would be forced to ask the family involved to pay the cost. Let's not have that happen. Let's all be good stewards of our resources.

THRIVENT ELECTION FOR THE GREENVILLE CHAPTER

All members are invited to join the Thrivent Greenville Chapter for the election of its officers for 2009. But wait, it's not just an election. There will be

- dinner (we only ask you to please bring a salad, vegetable or dessert),
- fabulous fellowship,
- And amazing drawings that could raise $400 for your congregation and some valuable cash for you (and who couldn't use some of that these days??).

Please sign up on your church bulletin board. Thank you.

(Friday, November 14 at 6:00 PM at Messiah Lutheran Church.)

A blue envelope will be found in your bulletin the third Sunday of each month for your extra donation which will go towards fulfilling our benevolent giving to various organizations as indicated in the Constitution. You may contribute that extra dollar any time during the month. Blue envelopes are found on the table in the Narthex. Please help us meet our financial plan for giving.

Black and White Cookies

- 1 cup packed brown sugar
- 1 cup butter
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 eggs
- 2 cups Gold Medal flour (AP)
- 1/3 cup unsweetened baking cocoa
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 bag(12 oz.) white chocolate chunks (2 cups)
- 1 jar (3.25 oz.) macadamia nuts, coarsely chopped

Remember time changes November 2. Set your clocks back before you go to bed Saturday or you will be early for service Sunday.

Heat oven to 325degrees F. In large bowl, beat brown sugar, butter, vanilla, and eggs with electric mixer on medium speed, or mix with spoon until creamy. Stir in flour, cocoa, baking soda, and salt. Stir in white chocolate chunks and nuts. Drop dough by 1/4 cupfuls about 2" apart onto ungreased large cookie sheet (do not use dark cookie sheet)

Bake 13 to 16 minutes or until cookies are set and appear dry (do not over bake). Cool 1 minute, remove from cookie sheet to wire rack.

Variation: Replace the white chunks with semisweet chocolate chips for a chocolate lover's cookie.

I substituted Smart Balance butter for the real stuff. Cuts a few fat grams
Egg substitute for 1 egg and 1 regular egg

If wrapped by twos in saran wrap, the cookies travel well.

Serving the Purpose of God

Martin Luther said...“If I profess with the loudest voice and clearest exposition every portion of the truth of God, except precisely at the point which the world and the devil are attacking; I have not professed Christ, no matter how boldly I am professing Him. Where the battle rages—there the loyalty of the soldier is proven. And to be steady on all the battlefields outside of that is mere flight and disgrace if I flinch at the point the enemy is attacking.”

Martin Luther understood and whole-heartedly believed an incredible promise from God: That He would never leave us or forsake us. If we trust God, we can also have the courage to make a difference. It doesn't matter how little or big we see ourselves, we can be champions of God.

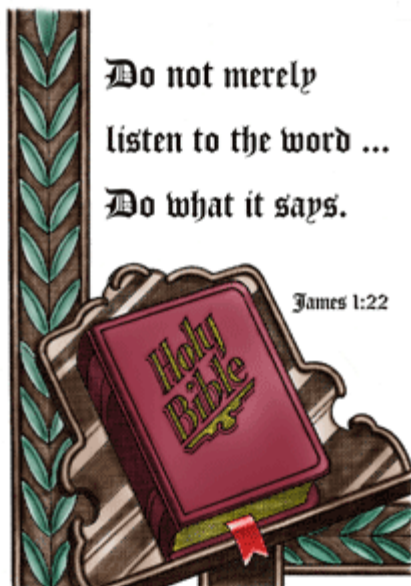

I have accepted to chair the Evangelism committee at Good Shepherd. This is the largest committee within any church, because every member, regardless of age, talents, or limitations is a member of this committee. You may say...evangelism is not my spiritual gift, and you would be right because evangelism is not a spiritual gift. It is a charge, given to you from the mouth of Christ to your ears. It is up to you to step up. Accept your responsibility to bring what you know about Christ to others. Every time you fail to do so, the cause of Christ is diminished.

Personally it is not my intent to be a recruiter for my home church. Whenever I engage in a conversation about Christ, I pray that the Holy Spirit will ignite in that person a desire to learn more about Christ, thus resulting in a spiritual growth for both of us.

My prayer is that we will comprehend our role in God's plan, otherwise we will be ever frustrated with God's failure to fulfill His role in our plan.

Your Friend in Christ,

Gary Meyer
